

VASSE FELIX

Press Release – 26th November 2010

Vasse Felix Wins multiple Trophies at the 2010 Dan Murphy's National Wine Show of Australia

Vasse Felix is delighted to announce it received 3 Trophies at the Dan Murphy's National Wine Show of Australia last night in Canberra. All 3 trophies were awarded to the 2009 Vasse Felix Heytesbury Chardonnay; the Oakton Trophy for 'Best Chardonnay', the Dan Murphy's Trophy for 'Best Dry White Wine' and the Len Evans Memorial Trophy for 'Best Table Wine of the Show'.

Vasse Felix Chief Winemaker, Virginia Willcock commented, "The art of doing as little as possible to what our vineyards express so perfectly, balanced with doing as much as possible to create a pristine pathway to bottle is what it is all about". "I could not be happier with how this wine looks and what it is saying about Margaret River's ability to produce world class Chardonnay"

The 2009 Heytesbury Chardonnay is the flagship white wine of Vasse Felix. It is a barrel selection of the finest parcels of Vasse Felix Chardonnay, is made without compromise, and its production is strictly limited.

The Dan Murphy's National Wine Show of Australia is the premier National show for table wines, sparkling wines, fortified wines and Brandy. A key feature of this show is an array of classes specifically for award winning wines. This unique focus makes this a grand final or 'show of shows' on the national wine show circuit.
